Thursday, April 1, 2010

7-9pm

Stony Brook Middle School Auditorium

*Westford has been rocked by recent, tragic domestic violence incidences.
The town is coming together to raise awareness and educate residents to the possible signs and causes of domestic violence in order to better help themselves and others in our community.*

State and regional agencies, organizations and town departments will be available to provide information on local resources.

Light refreshments will be served. This event is free and open to the public.
